

LURED TO A HOSPITAL.

Two Strange Men Take a Catholic Priest Prisoner.

LOCKED IN FOR SEVERAL HOURS.

His Friends All Reticent but Say He is Merely "on a Vacation"—The Strange Story Told by Rev. Father John J. Mallon, of Brooklyn—A Mystery That Cannot be Solved.

New York, July 5.—Rev. Father John J. Mallon, recently pastor of the Church of the Assumption, Brooklyn, gave out a story for publication yesterday which to many will read like the recital of a nightmare. Were it not for the high respect in which the priest is held it might be doubted, but it is substantially corroborated by the reverend gentleman's many friends. It is to the effect that he was lured to a hospital by two strange men and there detained a prisoner for several hours on the ground that he was in need of treatment.

Father Mallon, who told the story with great minuteness of detail, said that he was sitting in the rectory adjoining the church, York and Jay streets, late on the night of Friday, June 24, when he was summoned to the reception room by two men who represented themselves as officers with warrants for his arrest. They said he had better go along and avoid trouble.

HIS SUSPICIONS AROUSED.

The priest became alarmed and suspicious, and he sent for his father, Patrick Mallon, of No. 173 Nassau street, but he being ill, an uncle, Thomas Kelly, with his wife hurried around to the priest's house. The strangers told Mrs. Kelly they wanted Father Mallon to hear the confession of a dying man at St. Peter's Hospital, in Hieckburg.

Knowing that there was a chaplain at the hospital, Father Mallon doubted their story, and, concluding that there was some trick on foot, said he would not go. One of the strangers at this point disappeared, but the other, whose name the priest believes is Healey, hustled the whole party into a cab and drove them to St. Peter's Hospital. Healey left when the door was opened.

A sister greeted him and led him to a sickroom. She told the priest to remain quiet and he would receive proper treatment. "I'm not a sick man," Father Mallon insisted, "and there is no reason why I should remain here."

After the nurse left he and his uncle went down stairs to the reception room, where they were joined by Patrick Mallon, the priest's brother. The main entrance to the hospital had been locked and the whole party had to remain in the place until 2 a. m. Then they insisted on a departure. The nurse's answer was that she was waiting for a dispatch from Father James H. Mitchell, chancellor of the diocese. When the dispatch came it stated that Father Mallon should be detained until morning. After strongly protesting they were allowed to depart.

DEPOSED FROM THE PASTORATE.

On returning to his house the priest said: "I found that Father Joseph Kilpatrick had been placed in charge by Bishop McDonnell. The assistant pastor, Father Hannon, told me that it was the bishop's wish that I should not say mass in that church again. I called upon the bishop and asked him to investigate the case, also to investigate any charges that might have been made against me. I asked why I had been transferred and he said the bishop could make such charges as he deemed advisable."

Father Mallon then went to his father's home, No. 173 Nassau street, where he is now stopping pending a settlement of his case. He says he is allowed to celebrate mass daily at St. John's seminary. He was temporary pastor of the Assumption church three months, being appointed by Vicar General May, who managed the diocese before Bishop McDonnell was installed. The church has had no permanent pastor since the Very Rev. William Keegan, V. G., died.

The hospital authorities say they know nothing about Father Mallon's case. Father Mallon was seen last night by a Press reporter. He said: "I am awaiting the return of the bishop. He has been misinformed regarding me, but I feel certain that he will do me justice when he investigates the case. It has been said that I am sick, and even hinted that my mental faculties were not as strong as they were, and that I needed a rest or a vacation. I am in excellent condition, and I have the word of my physician, Dr. John Griffin, for that. If I need a rest it is only as any man of active habits might need a rest for a few days at this period of the year."

THE BISHOP INVOLVED.

A reporter called at Bishop McDonnell's house yesterday and was told that he would be at liberty at 4 o'clock. A second call was made and it was stated that Bishop McDonnell was out of the city. The chancellor and secretary, Father James H. Mitchell, was asked about Father Mallon's case. He replied: "Father Mallon is simply on a vacation. His physician, Dr. Griffin, advised him to take a brief vacation and that is all there is to it."

Several other questions were put to the reverend gentleman, but to each he replied: "He is on a vacation."

The Dr. Griffin referred to is Health Commissioner John Griffin, M. D., who lives at No. 45 Lefferts place. When asked about Father Mallon's case he said he did not know whether or not the priest was sick. He refused to say if he had advised him to take a vacation. He finally dismissed the matter by saying he did not care to speak about it, nor to be drawn into the case in any way.

Later on Father Mallon was seen a second time, and he said Dr. Griffin had not advised him to take a vacation, as it was altogether unnecessary that he should do so. Thomas Kelly, the priest's uncle, said his nephew was not on a vacation. "He is not sick nor indisposed in any way. He is in this house awaiting developments in his case."

Father Mallon is about thirty-seven and has been a clergyman thirteen years. He was pastor of St. John's chapel several years. When he was placed in temporary charge of the Church of the Assumption he was assistant pastor of St. Paul's church in Court street. He proposes to enter the concursus which has been called by the bishop for the purpose of selecting an "irremovable rector" for the Assumption church. The appointment is made after a competitive examination.

An Alabama Lynching. BIRMINGHAM, ALA., July 5.—News reached Birmingham last night of a lynching which occurred in a swamp near Jasper, in Walker county, Ala., yesterday morning. It was an unknown negro who fell a victim to an infuriated band of citizens. He had attempted to assault two highly respectable white women in one day. The fiend was surrounded in an eighty-acre swamp, and as soon as the gray streak allowed he was riddled with bullets.

GERMAN ORGANS

On the Strained Situation Between Bismarck and the Emperor.

BERLIN, July 5.—The North German Gazette declines to follow the Hamburger Nachrichten into the field of personal abuse. The fact that Prince Bismarck affects to ignore the official inspiration of the Gazette's article is held to prove that Prince Bismarck fears to enter upon a press war with the government. Papers friendly to Prince Bismarck express the hope that the affair is now ended. A Kissenon telegram to the Neue Nachrichten, of Munich, asserts that Prince Bismarck regards the prospect of a trial with a good conclusion.

The Neue Nachrichten says that Prince Bismarck will publish an answer to the North German Gazette articles in the Hamburger Nachrichten. The whole German press is displaying irritation at the tone of the French government in determining to hold an international exhibition in 1900, thus greatly interfering with the proposed Berlin exhibition. The Vossische Zeitung strongly blames Chancellor Von Caprivi for the timidity which it alleges he has displayed in the matter.

Thurman's Regrets.

COLUMBUS, O., July 5.—The local Democracy held a ratification meeting of the Chicago ticket last night, at which Governor Campbell and others delivered addresses. Judge Thurman, who was expected to preside, sent the following letter:

DEAR SIR:—Yours inviting me to preside at the ratification meeting this evening was duly received. I more than regret my inability to accept, for it would give me great pleasure to be with you were it possible for me to do so. The renomination of Mr. Cleveland is a just tribute to his stern merits as a man, a citizen and a Democrat, and no one will take greater pleasure than I shall in contributing whatever may be in my power to his success.

(Signed) A. G. THURMAN.

Around the World on a Bicycle.

CHICAGO, July 5.—Frank Lenz, who left New York June 4 on a bicycle tour around the world, has arrived here. It has taken him twenty days to ride 1,135 miles, which distance he has covered between New York and Chicago. He expects to reach New York again June 4, 1894. His route follows the Northern Pacific railroad to San Francisco and he will wheel from Shanghai, China, to Calcutta, India, a trip that has never been made by a wheelman.

Gladstone in Earnest.

GLASGOW, July 5.—Mr. Gladstone delivered an address at a meeting held in Stow, Edinburghshire, yesterday. He declared that when in 1879 he anticipated a victory in the then coming election his anticipation was realized. He believed that the same was going to happen now. Parliament would never be able to attend to the business of the country until the Irish question was settled. The Liberals would have to repair all the present government's work.

At 3 in the Morning.

OMAHA, Neb., July 5.—Shortly before 3 o'clock this morning General Weaver and General Field, the newly made nominees of the People's party, were brought on the stage and given an ovation. Each made a spirited address and at 3 a. m. the convention adjourned sine die.

Things Worth Remembering.

When you feel a kind of goneness about the stomach it is a sign that your food does not sit well and that you are about to have a fit of indigestion.

When you begin to feel nervous and are unable to sit still comfortably; when your clothes suddenly seem to lose their fit and become too tight in places the fit of indigestion is surely upon you.

When this fit of indigestion is repeated from day to day it finally repeats itself into dyspepsia.

Remember that three to ten of BRANDRITH'S PILLS will cure the worst case of indigestion or dyspepsia, or both, and that a regular course of them, say two every night for a week or ten days, will act as a preventive of either complaint.

The following, clipped from the Burlington Junction (Mo.) Post, contains information of no little value to persons troubled with indigestion:

For years the editor of the Post has been subject to cramp colic or fits of indigestion, that prostrated him for several hours and unfitted him for business for two or three days afterward. About a year ago we called on S. J. Butcher, druggist, and asked for something to ward off an attack that was already making life hideous. Mr. Butcher handed us a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We took the medicine according to directions, and not only found relief on that occasion, but have several times since tried its virtues and found relief in every instance. We take this method of acknowledging the benefits derived and recommending the cure to all others subject to indigestion. For sale by druggists.

MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK.

Camp-Meeting—Wheeling Personal—Improvements—Programme of the Season.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer.

MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, July 5.—The Pentecostal camp-meeting was opened Saturday at 10 a. m., by Rev. Updegraff, the Quaker evangelist, of Ohio. There were present people from South Dakota, Colorado, Kansas, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio, West Virginia, Virginia, Pennsylvania, Maryland, District of Columbia, Delaware, New Jersey and New York. Miss Teeter, just returned from Africa, is also present.

Among the prominent clergymen are Revs. Pepper and Thompson, editors of the Standard, Philadelphia; Dr. Brown, editor Ram's Horn, Indianapolis; Rev. Joseph Smith, of Ohio; Rev. G. A. Wood, of New York; Rev. Dr. Graham, of Long Island; Dr. Foote, Dr. Dugan Clark, of Richmond, Ind. Dr. Kean, the successful evangelist; Dr. McChesney, of Cincinnati, and others will arrive within the next few days.

The attendance at the camp is the largest known in its history. The services are well attended and the interest growing. Altar exercises are conducted at every meeting, and they seem to be enjoyed and fruitful. The singing is excellent and is led by Dr. Gilmour, author of "Winning Songs." So far, the meetings have been of the old fashioned style. The shouts of "Glory," "Praise the Lord" and "Hallelujah" are in order all the time, and the response "Amen" frequent. Weeping, laughing shouting, is not unusual at a service.

Sabbath, although it rained nearly all day, the services were largely attended. At 10 a. m. Rev. John Thompson, of Philadelphia, conducted a love feast; at 11 a. m. Rev. Updegraff, of Ohio, preached; at 2 p. m. a lady from Jacksonville, Ill., conducted a young people's meeting; at 3:30 p. m. Rev. Joseph Smith, of Ohio, preached; at 8 p. m. Rev. Foote occupied the pulpit. Methodists, Episcopalians, Presbyterians, Quakers, etc., were so much interested in it they could not be recognized officially; in fact the noisiest man was a Quaker.

Wheeling is represented in the party by Edward Reid and family, Mrs. Isiah Warren, Mrs. Nellie Holoway and children, Mrs. C. C. Stone, Mrs. Elizabeth Stone, T. H. Monz, Esq., Mrs. John Smith and daughter, Mrs. Sawyer, Mrs. Wayman and son, Mrs. Mary Good and family, Mrs. Dr. Young and family, Dr. McClain and family, States Attorney Howard and family, Judge Raymond and family, L. Oak Hall, with its twenty-five rooms is nearly finished. In a few days its doors will be opened to the public. Faith Hotel was opened to the public. It has thirty-two rooms, bright and fresh. This hotel is delightfully located. Mrs. Byrne and daughter, of Kingwood, have taken possession of their new cottage. Miss Susie Pollock is furnishing her home, just completed at a cost of $1,600. Rev. E. C. Clark, of Buckhannon, will have his cottage furnished by the middle of the week. Dr. Davidson's cottage is receiving its finishing touches. Spilzor cottage has had a six room addition put to it. Several cottages have had one or two rooms added to them.

Hon. G. W. Atkinson, W. C. Conner, Mrs. C. C. Stone, Miss Lizzie Stone and Dr. McClain, of Wheeling, own cottages in the park.

Hon. George C. Sturgis, of Morgantown, Dr. Watson, of Fostoria, O., A. A. Line, of Carlisle, Pa., will rent cottages this summer.

The park is in excellent condition. The yards are in good shape. As a health and summer resort Mountain Lake Park is rapidly coming to the front. The healthfulness of the place is beyond question. The season of 1892 promises to be the most successful in its history.
